

Wantaghite wins photo contest – again!

Christopher Corradino of Wantagh was awarded a trophy to recognize his fifth win of the www.Wantagh.LI Photography Contest. Mr. Corradino is the first photographer to achieve the five-time recipient level. To mark this milestone, he also received a one-year subscription to the Wantagh/Seaford Citizen and a $100 gift certificate to Berger Brothers.

Mr. Corradino, whose work has been featured on the cover of major publications, said, "I am honored and I greatly appreciate being selected". Other awards Mr. Corradino received this year include the third place "Leonard Victor" award by the Photographic Federation of LI and the "Slide of the Year" award by the Wantagh Camera Club.

The ceremony took place at the Wantagh Museum. Those present included Joe Farinella (president of the Wantagh Chamber), Lucy Farinella (chair of the Wantagh Image Committee), Jeffery Saporito (president of the Wantagh Preservation Society) county Legislator David Denenberg, Christopher Corradino and Vanna Sugar (photo contest coordinator for www.Wantagh.LI).

Since September of 2002, the Wantagh website has sponsored a free photography competition in which anyone over the age of 18 could submit photos taken in Wantagh. Each month, a winning photographer receives a Wantagh gift. The winning photo and the photographer's name are posted on the homepage for the winning month, and are posted permanently in the winner's list.

If you have a photo taken in Wantagh that you're proud of, submit it to the Wantagh dot LI Photo Contest. It's free and you never know – you could be the next winner!

About the Wantagh Website: The Wantagh Website www.Wantagh.LI was first posted in 2001. The website offers fast access to neighborhood information, and its charter is to help the people and businesses of our community.

CHRISTOPHER CORRADINO receives his award as Jeff Saporito, president of the Wantagh Preservation Society, holds his daughter Mary, last year's Citizen First Baby of the Year. They were joined by Joe and Lucy Farinella of the Chamber of Commerce, Legislator David Denenberg and Vanna Sugar.
